Fourth Annual Reunion of the 161st. Ind. Vol.
Inf.

Business Meeting This Afternoon—Camp Fire Tonight at Court House.

Today Rushville entertained as her guests, soldiers of another war—the late Spanish-American war. Members of the One Hundred and Sixty-First Indiana Volunteer Infantry, which served in Cuba during that war, under the command of Colonel Winfield T. Durbin, late governor of Indiana, gathered here to hold their fourth annual reunion.

The first to arrive were the Richmond boys, about fifteen in number, who came in over the Pennsylvania at 7:55 a. m. Other members from the other cities which had companies in the regiment, came in during the forenoon over the different roads and the entire time was taken up with the reception and the registration of the members. Colonel Durbin and wife arrived at noon over the I. & C. and were met at the station by the entire number of ex-soldiers present, who escorted them to the court house.

The W. R. C. served dinner in the room on East First street, recently vacated by J. A. Craig's grocery.

At 1:30 the business session of the reunion convened in the court house assembly room. The minutes of the last reunion held at New Castle two years ago, were read and approved. Letters and regrets were read from various officers of the regiment who were unable to be present. Among them was Captain Hudgins, who is sick with typhoid fever at his home in Shelbyville. The regiment unanimously voted that a letter of sympathy be sent to him on behalf of the regiment. Among the letters received was a letter from Captain Garrison, of Seymour, who was the assistant surgeon of the regiment. He advised the boys if they felt bad because he was unable to be present, to "take a little quinine."

A motion was passed asking that Lieutenant Ward draft and forward a resolution in the shape of a letter of condolence to the widow of the late General Fitzhugh Lee, in whose brigade the 161st was listed.

Indianapolis was chosen as the next place, and Wednesday of State fair week, 1906, was chosen as the time where and when the next reunion shall be held. Lieut. Ward was chosen as a committee to select the place in which the reunion could be held.

Lieut. Ward, of Indianapolis, was then elected president of the organization for the ensuing year. Captain Comstock, of Richmond, was elected vice president, and Captain James L. Anderson, of Indianapolis, was elected as secretary and treasurer.

Lieut. Ward was then called upon to explain to the regiment regarding the money which is coming to the soldiers from the government. He said that a judgment had been secured in the court of claims, awarding the members of the 161st back pay due them from the State for time served from the time that the different companies were called until they were mustered into service. This pay should have been paid to the 161st at the time, as other regiments were paid, but Lieut. Ward said that the trouble resulted probably from an oversight on the part of Governor Mount's administration, it not being known at the time that the 161st was recruited from the secondary militia instead of the primary as were the other regiments. At present the captains of the various companies are listing the men and as soon as these rolls are completed and presented to the auditor of the War Department the claims will be paid. The men will receive back pay for about thirty days, at the rate of $1.50 per day for privates, and $2.00 per day for commissioned officers.

President J. M. Gwinn then announced that Col. Durbin was compelled to return to Anderson this afternoon on important business and would be unable to attend the camp-fire tonight. A speech was called for and Col. Durbin arose and delivered a short but splendid address. The meeting then adjourned until 7:30 tonight, at which time the camp-fire will be held in the court house assembly room. Congressman Watson and others will speak. Those who attended the reunion and registered were as follows:

INVOLUNTARY SERVITUDE

Is the Basis of a Charge Made by Two Peru
Women.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—That they were taken from their English home in tender childhood, brought to this country and for twelve years treated brutally while being forced to learn the stunts of acrobats, is alleged by Alice Welch and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Berry, now residents of Peru, Ind., in a complaint filed through John W. Kern against Robert Hobson, sr., Arthur Hobson and Robert Hobson, jr., known as the "Nelson family" of acrobats, now performing at the state fair. The two women went to the fair grounds and took their brother William, who, it is said, was held through fear, from the management of the acrobatic troupe.

Each of the women demanded a judgment of $25,000 damages. They declare that the elder Hobson held them by force in a state of servitude, and they did not escape from him until Sept. 24, 1903. At that time they were in Fresno, Cal. The two girls had managed to get a little money, and, without extra clothing, escaped in the night. Afterward they obtained employment with other troupes, and one of the sisters has since married. They now live in Peru. During the time they were with the "Nelsons" they received no pay for their services, they say.

Cambridge City Tribune: Last Sunday Clifford Marson and Edwin Calaway went south as far as Falmouth to visit two sweet lassies. As both young men are noted for their timidity and fearing that conversation might lag, they took a talking machine with them thinking that "Every Little Bit Helps." It is said they broke all the records and came home whistling "The St. Louis Tickle," the same tune that caused a man to fall in a fit while the boys were playing at the Rushville fair.

GLENWOOD CASE IS DISMISSED

Incorporation Fight Suddenly Ends in Circuit Court.

More Divorces Granted—Other Doings in Court Today.

In the circuit court this morning Judge Sparks sustained a motion, made by the attorneys for the petitioners or those favoring incorporation, in the Glenwood incorporation case, to dismiss the appeal. The judge therefore dismissed the case, holding with the petitioners, that the appellants should have filed an appeal from the decision of the county commissioners. Judge Sparks gave 90 days for the filing of the bill of exceptions.

After the appeal was dismissed this morning, J. T. Arbuckle, attorney for the appellants or remonstrators, announced that he would probably ask an appeal to the higher courts. The appellants hold that they were not compelled to file an appeal bond under the new law.

The divorce suit of Jesse Fry vs. Bertha Fry was heard in court this morning and a divorce was granted the plaintiff upon the payment of costs. The case of Samuel Kennedy vs. Elizabeth Kennedy, over a drain, was dismissed for want of prosecution.

A motion to dismiss the appeal in the case of Charles W. Desham vs. the P. C. & St. L. Ry. Co., for damages, was sustained by the court.

The divorce suit of James F. Adams vs. Nettie M. Adams was dismissed by the plaintiff.

In the case of Miller and Hart vs. John R. Spivey and Will Spivey on an account, the suit was dismissed by the plaintiff as regard John Spivey and judgment was rendered against Will Spivey in the sum of $88.63.

THE BETHANY DEBT IS PAID

The Park Will be Kept and Improved—Directors
Jollify.

George C. Wyatt, of this city, secretary of the Bethany Park board, has returned home after attending a meeting of the board at Indianapolis on Wednesday, at which time arrangements were made for paying off the last dollar of the park indebtedness. For the first time in the twenty-two years' history of the assembly, it is free from debt, and the directors held a genuine jollification meeting. The last amount paid out was a $5000 note.

The directors immediately voted that large improvements be made in the park before the assembly opens next summer, the money which has heretofore been used for interest to be used for this purpose. Cement walks will be put in through the grounds, all the buildings will be repaired and a number of new cottages will be built. Applications have already been received from a number of persons who now desire to build private cottages, since the indebtedness is paid, and the ever-present rumor that the park was to be sold has been eliminated.

The report of the treasurer for the last assembly showed the most prosperous year in the history of the association. It was decided that next year's assembly will be longer than heretofore, opening about July 18th, and closing about August 16th. More money will be spent in providing the best possible program.

The managers of next year's Chattanooga are making an effort to secure Gunsauls, the well known lecturer, for a series of talks.

A NEW DISEASE

Something Similar to Canker is Attacking Fruit Trees in State.

A new blight is attacking the pear and apple orchards, not only the young trees, but the old trees as well, and the farmers in different parts of the State are becoming much concerned, as great damage is being done. The disease is not a regular blight that attacks the pear tree, but a canker at the tip of the leaves on the ends of the branches, gradually working its way toward the trunk. The leaves turn dark brown and finally the twigs curl up and drop off. The experimental station may investigate the matter.

MRS. A. P. WALKER SEEKS DIVORCE

Alleges That Her Husband Was Guilty of Cruel and Inhuman Treatment.

Mrs. Ida Walker, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, through her attorneys, Watson, Titworth & Green, filed suit in the Rush circuit court for divorce from her husband, A. P. Walker, alleging, among other important charges, that he was guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment toward her.

Both parties are quite well known. Mr. Walker is a stockman of note and resides on the Jersey Isle Stock farm, northeast of town.

Mrs. Walker says that her husband is worth $14,000 and she asks $5000 alimony. The couple was married on Dec. 10th, 1890, and separated last month. Smith, Cambern & Smith will represent the defendant.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP

Two Colored Men Tried to Fell
Carthage Man as he Returned From Store.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]

Carthage, Ind., Sept. 14.—While Lee Wooten was returning from the store Tuesday night on his bicycle, between eight and nine o'clock, he was accosted by two colored men, just below Murray Moore's. Paying no attention to them, one of the colored men threw a club at him, but fortunately it did not strike him. The club was thrown with such force that it would have killed him had it struck him.

Mr. Wooten telephoned back as soon as he arrived home, and a crowd of men and boys started in search of the fellows, but could find nothing of them.

At the reunion of the 52d Indiana Infantry regiment at Indianapolis, yesterday, Col. E. H. Wolfe, of this city, was elected president; Charles B. Johnson, of Napoleon, was elected vice president. Drury Holt, of Carthage, was chosen secretary and treasurer. The next reunion will be held at the same place, (Marion county court house) on Wednesday of State fair week, 1906.

Before a great while, it is predicted, there will be a great demand for discarded cornstalks, and will add additional revenue for the farmers. The latest outcome of ingenuity is paper made from cornstalks. It can be produced at one-third the cost of that from wood fiber and rags. It is said, too, that samples of the new paper show it to be equal to the fine goods made from lined.

DR. HURTY IS GETTING DATA

Wants Information About the Water Supply in Cities of State.

Believes the Question to be One of Very Great Importance to the Public.

Preparatory to the beginning of an investigation concerning the water supply of all cities and towns in the State, the State Board of Health is sending out blanks to all the health officers.

This new work of the State board comes in connection with the establishing of the new laboratory of hygiene that was authorized by the last legislature and the laboratory will be extensively used in the work of analyzing samples of water sent in. The task will be large, as there are more than 400 incorporated towns and cities in the State, in addition to the many unincorporated towns and villages. It is expected that a general improvement in the supply will result.

The letter accompanying the blanks, and signed by Dr. J. N. Hurty, secretary of the board, says: "One of the problems before us, which is of great importance to the health of the individual and the community, is the regular analysis of water from all public supplies, and we must have certain data before we commence our work. It is necessary to us in our work that we have full information about the public supplies of the cities and towns, and we trust that you will secure complete and authentic answers to the questions."

Dr. Hurty in discussing the matter said that quarterly examinations of the public water supplies would be made at the laboratory and thus the department would be kept in close touch with the work. "The public water supply of the towns and cities is of much importance to the health of citizens that we think that we could not do better with the laboratory than to divert part of its activity towards bettering the water supply of the State."

The blanks sent include twenty-six questions concerning the details of water supply, whether the source is a pond, a stream, springs or wells. If a pond, questions relative to the details of the banks, the bottom, depth, etc., are asked. If a stream, the volume of water is asked, and particular attention is given to the question whether or not any sewerage comes into the water above the intake for the public plant.

INSANE MAN LODGED IN JAIL

Bun Fritch Found Wandering About West Part of Town.

"Bun" Fritch, living west of town, who, for some time has been in a demented condition, and who has at various times, been an inmate of the county jail, the poor farm, and the Julietta Insane Asylum, was found wandering about the west part of town Wednesday afternoon, terrorizing the women and children by his actions. Fritch had recently been returned from the Julietta asylum and had been wandering about the country near his home, west of town, all day, scaring people along the road and on the neighboring farms. When it was learned that he had been seen in town policeman Gordon and Ryan started in pursuit. Fritch was found and taken to jail, where he is now confined. He becomes insane only at times and his condition is most pitiable. He says he desires to injure no one, but the authorities will not allow him to be at large.

THE ALBERS CASE

Uncle Sam and a Philadelphia
Lawyer are Now Interested.

Washington, Sept. 14.—After consultation between the state and navy departments it has been decided that a warship shall be sent to one of the Costa Rican ports to convey American Minister Merry, at last accounts in San Jose, northward to the nearest point on the coast of Nicaragua or Honduras to the place where William S. Albers, an American citizen, and his brother are confined pending a trial on the charge of resisting legal process and of insulting the president of Nicaragua. The officials of the state and navy departments decline to make any statement whatever on this subject just now, but it is known that it has received serious attention and that the lack of information as to the exact nature of the offense charged against Albers and the possibility of his not receiving a fair trial have caused an effort to be made to get in closer touch with the prisoner. The gunboat Princeton, now at Panama, is the nearest warship to Ocotul, in the province of Zegovia, where Albers is imprisoned. But the last-named town is seventy miles inland over a rough mountain range from the coast, and the trail is not passable by any vehicle. Amapala, on the Gulf of Fonseca, on the southern boundary of Honduras, appears to be the nearest port to Ocotul. The Port Limon company, whose agent Albers was, has sent a lawyer named Brubaker, of Philadelphia, to Ocotul to assist in his defense.

HERDERS SHOULD CONSULT OTHERS

Parties Herding Cattle Along Highways Should Ask Neighbors About it.

The attorney general of Indiana states some interesting facts in his interpretation of the law regarding stock running at large. He says stock may be allowed to graze along the public highways if properly herded, but it does not relieve the owner from any damage done by the stock. The land along a road belongs to the owner of the abutting property for all purposes except for use as a public highway. He owns the grass that grows on that land and no one may use it without his consent. And, therefore, though herding is lawful the herder must first get the consent of the owner of the abutting property, before using the grass.

TOBACCO IS PROFITABLE

The Indiana Farmers Beginning to Increase Their Acreage.

Six Counties in State Raise Biggest Part of Entire Crop—
Wheat Acreage.

Although Indiana is not known as a tobacco-raising State, comparative figures for 1904 and 1905, compiled from the township assessors' reports by Joseph H. Stubbs, chief of the bureau of statistics, show that the acreage used in tobacco culture increased about 70 per cent. in 1905 over the acreage on 1904. The figures indicate that about 13,500 acres of Indiana land is devoted to the raising of tobacco this year. There was 8361 acres of tobacco in Indiana last year.

Six Indiana counties raise the bulk of the tobacco, and in each of them the acreage this year shows a large increase. Jefferson county increased in tobacco acreage from 726 to 2308; Switzerland from 2106 to 2332; Spencer from 1388 to 2301; Vigo from 563 to 2181; Warrick from 1032 to 1770, and Ohio from 399 to 635. Nevins township, Vigo county, had the largest acreage of any, the number being 2165. Even Marion county had 113 acres in tobacco, as compared with 81 acres the year before.

These township assessors' reports also show that the wheat acreage which last year was less than half of the average for the last ten years, has been recovered to some extent, the acreage being slightly over 1,600,000 as compared with 1,363,193 in 1904. The average in the last ten years is about 2,500,000 acres. Knox county showed the greatest increase in wheat acreage, from 19,402 in 1904 to 501,125 in 1905. In Marion county there was a slight decrease from 24,320 to 23,514. In sixty-five of the counties of the State there was an increase in wheat acreage.

The figures indicate that the corn acreage is about the same, while the oats acreage will far exceed any previous record, as it is larger this year in all but the following counties: Harrison, Jackson, Lawrence, Marshall, Martin, Newton, Noble, Owen, Steuben, Switzerland, Warrick, Wells and White.

DRUNKEN MAN RAISES TROUBLE

Chas. Peterman of Metamora
Smashes Furniture and Cuts off Man's Nose.

Wednesday night Chas. Peterman, a one-armed ex-soldier residing in Metamora, while intoxicated, smashed up the furniture in his home, rolled up the carpets and chopped them into shreds, and then securing a butcher knife attacked his brother-in-law, Wm. Curry, and with a powerful blow cut off his nose and inflicted a deep gash in his head. The sheriff was summoned and Peterman was taken into custody and landed in the Brookville jail.

RUSHVILLE, IND., SEPT. 14, 1905.

The Sciota Gazette says that "any Republican who thinks to fly to the bosom of the Democracy, either on national, State or county issues, will find that he has fallen into a company which sends up a mirage of reform for the fooling of those who will take the dream for practical substance." Very true and at every election there are Republicans who permit themselves to be misled by just such promises.

In Washington there are several Indians—a good many. Most of them hold offices. With the sense of kinship that animates all good Hoosiers they have organized and called the organization the Indiana club. It is said that the civil service commission is pursuing their organization because the members do not feel that when they accepted office they sacrificed their right to take an interest in politics. The commission apparently thinks that the club should be disbanded or the individual members emasculated. There may be a great deal of wisdom in this, but we should have little respect for a man who would accept office at that price.

The Democratic party which predicted all sorts of dire things in the event of the Republican party's success at the polls last November are not yet willing to admit that the existing condition is to be described as Republican prosperity, but the Kansas City Star has discovered at least one object lesson in the following, for it says: "A Kansas man was seen sitting alone on the prairie with a two-bushel sack of dollars by his side. He seemed to be in distress and was asked what worried him. 'It is this way,' said the man as he kicked disgustedly at a tuft of bunch grass. 'I just sold my crop of wheat and there isn't a blamed bird to throw the money at. What am I to do with the stuff is more than I can tell.'"

A STRAW

Which Indicates the Way the Political Wind Blows.

Indianapolis, Sept. 14.—As predicted some time ago by your correspondent, the betting on the city election is opening with odds in favor of Bookwalter, the Republican candidate. At one place today 10 to 8 was offered that he will be elected. Tired of waiting for backers of Mayor Holtzman to take even money the Bookwalter men today offered to bet that Bookwalter will have 2,500 majority. Even money is offered that the majority will be that large. Bookwalter's followers say the betting shows the way the wind is blowing, but Mayor Holtzman's friends are recalling that two years ago the odds were three to two against him, yet he defeated Bookwalter. Whether or not the betting is a good indication is a matter of speculation, but the prediction made recently that Bookwalter will be a strong favorite on the boards is being carried out.

The state fair crowd is the largest in the history of the state board of agriculture. The city is jammed full. There has probably been no such crowd here since the national encampment of the G. A. R., several years ago. The interurban roads are a large factor in helping to make the fair a great success, as they are bringing in an army of people. The steam roads seem to be getting their usual share. The interurban traffic bears out the statement made by transportation experts that more people are traveling since the electric lines were built. The attendance at the fair yesterday was above 35,000. It was larger today, but will probably dwindle tomorrow. It looks as if the board will have a nice large "nest-egg" as a result of the big business which will enable it to pay off the debt hanging over the grounds. It is very likely that before the next year rolls around extensive improvements will be made in the grounds. The fair seems to be growing in popularity throughout the entire state, but all county fairs have done a remarkable business.

The controversy continues relative to a location for the Benjamin Harrison monument. Congressman Overstreet says he is not in favor of having the monument in front of the new federal building if the present design is not changed. He says he has not been asked by Secretary Shaw of the treasury department regarding a location, but he believes it should be in front of the federal building if a design is accepted that will conform with it. Senator Beveridge says he has not been consulted and Vice President Fairbanks declares that John B. Elam, president of the monument commission, should do the talking. Mr. Elam, however, refuses to say anything. It is probable that nothing will be done pending a decision from the treasury department. In the meantime the faithful followers of the late president are getting more embarrassed all the time on account of the controversy.

Fred Sims of Frankfort, secretary of the Republican state committee, was one of the state fair visitors today. Although he has no opposition for the nomination of secretary of state, he is hustling for the place about the same as if he did have. Sims was very popular as secretary of the organization and Ninth district committeeman, and party leaders generally feel that he is entitled to the nomination without opposition. Two or three men have figured on entering the race against him, but have given up, as they have found that he is too popular with the powers that be. J. M. Monahan of Orleans, candidate for treasurer, and several other aspirants for places on the Republican state ticket were here today.

Senator Hemenway, who has been here since Saturday, returned to his home today, accompanied by Clem Perler, state senator from Warrick county, and Truman Tillman, his private secretary. Senator Hemenway attended the state fair yesterday afternoon with Congressman Watson of Rushville, Joseph B. Kealing and other Republican leaders. He will probably not go to Washington until about the first of November.

Turned Up a Dinosaur.
Brazil, Ind., Sept. 14.—Robert Long, who resides north of the city, reports the find of the petrified remains of a prehistoric animal resembling a gigantic lizard, which is probably what is known as a dinosaur. Long reports that the huge petrified animal is about eighteen feet in length and will weigh about eighteen or twenty tons. The animal is incased in the sand and sandstone in a ravine not far from his home, the exact location of which he refuses to divulge.

Taggart Decision Reserved.
Wooster, O., Sept. 14.—The Taggart divorce case came to an end last evening with the closing argument of Attorney Sterlin for Captain Taggart. Captain Taylor, for Mrs. Taggart, closed his last argument directly after the morning recess. Judge Eason announced that he would render his decision in a week or ten days.

Strike May Be Averted.

SATISFACTORY CONDITION

Baron Komura's Illness Not Thought to Be Serious.

New York, Sept. 14.—Baron Komura, the Japanese peace envoy, who is reported to be suffering from typhoid fever, although the consulting physicians are not a unit on this point, is said to be in a satisfactory condition. Baron Komura is at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel and his return to Japan has been indefinitely postponed, although most of the members of his suite departed for Seattle today, the date originally planned for the departure of the mission.

The Word at Seattle.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 14.—Baron Komura has notified Japanese Consul Hizamitsu that he could not leave on the steamship Dakota on Sept. 20, as he is too ill to make the start from

HENRY W. DENTISON.

New York in time for the Dakota's sailing. He hopes to come west over the Canadian Pacific, sailing with four other members of his suite on the Empress of Japan Oct. 2. H. W. Dentison, the American advisor to the foreign department, Colonel Takibana, military attache, and two secretaries will sail on the Dakota.

A Sample of Boycott Campaign.

Washington, Sept. 14.—The department of commerce and labor has received from a United States consul in China a copy of placards that have been distributed in various provinces to stimulate the boycott against American goods. The placards are about 4 by 1 1/2 feet and are covered with crude drawings showing American policemen clubbing Chinese and hanging them by the queues. Underneath the picture is the statement: "This is the way the Chinese are treated in the United States."

THE BALKANS AGAIN

War Correspondents Once More Looking in That Direction.

Vienna, Sept. 14.—According to telegrams received from Belgrade a plot has been discovered there and at Sofia to foment a general outbreak in the Balkans with a view of compelling the interference of the powers in the hope that Macedonian autonomy would be proclaimed. The alleged plot, telegrams say, included an intention to assassinate King Peter of Serbia and Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria. Those engaged in the plot at Sofia have been imprisoned. It is added that the recent attempt to assassinate the sultan of Turkey in the courtyard of the mosque at Constantinople is supposed to have been the work of the same organization.

OTHER SIDE OF IT

Mutual Life Company's Treasurer in Defense of Syndicates.

HIS FRANK STATEMENT

Mr. Cromwell Says the Law of Combination Has Made the Modern Syndicate Necessary.

He Then Explains That His Great Company Can Operate Only Through Such Agencies.

New York, Sept. 14.—A vigorous defense of syndicates and their operations in connection with the insurance business and a frank statement of personal profits gained through their operations made by Frederick Cromwell, treasurer of the Mutual Life Insurance company, was the feature of yesterday's session of the special legislative committee appointed to probe methods of life insurance companies in this state. The defense of the syndicate was made by Mr. Cromwell soon after he was called to the stand. Before he was asked a question he begged leave to say a few words, and upon being directed to proceed, said:

"The law of combination which affects finance as everything else, has made syndicates necessary. When I became treasurer of the Mutual Life Insurance company the total assets of our company were $100,000,000. The transactions in my department now are over $100,000,000 per annum. When our receipts were less—twenty years ago—it was quite possible for us to buy from bond dealers and pay the successive profits, but now it is absolutely impossible to buy advantageously large blocks of securities, except as they are floated by these combinations of capital popularly called syndicates, and we have to go into them to get our investments and get them in sufficient size and at 'ground floor' prices. We could not make our investments without syndicates, and we are partners in every syndicate into which we go. I want to say further that unless we went into these syndicates we would not be able to invest our funds except by buying in small quantities and paying the successive profits of middlemen.

"I ask you, Mr. Hughes and the committee, to consider that we have now over $450,000,000 of assets and while we have over $100,000,000 invested in bond and mortgage, we are constantly under the necessity of finding additional investments for our large accumulations of funds. This is the condition. It is no theory. It is a condition which we meet and the exhibits are here which show how we have to employ it. Our investments are such that when Mr. Tappan, I suppose about the most widely known and honored bank president in his day in New York, died, he left it as a condition that his trustees should have one privilege, and that was to invest in the same securities as those of the Mutual Life Insurance company. That is the way we invested our money, but we could not make the transactions of $100,000,000 a year in the securities bought by this company without using syndicates."

The acknowledgment of personal profits was made in a tabulated statement which was presented to the committee after recess. It showed that Mr. Cromwell had made a personal profit of $26,371 from syndicate operations during the last five years in which he individually and the Mutual Life Insurance company had participated.

Mr. Hughes, chief counsel of the committee, immediately took up each item of these syndicate transactions in an effort to ascertain the manner in which these profits were obtained. An interesting point was brought out when probing a transaction in Pennsylvania railroad 3½ convertibles in which Mr. Cromwell made no personal profit, the witness stated: "Of course we are greatly interested in the Pennsylvania railroad. I might say we are the heaviest stockholders."

Answering Mr. Hughes, Mr. Cromwell said the holdings of the Mutual Life in the Pennsylvania railroad was $5,400,000 par. Among these transactions the connection of trust companies with the Mutual Life was brought out when it was stated that the million pounds sterling subscription to a Japanese loan was shared by the United States Mortgage and Trust company and the Guarantee Trust company.

After Mayor Weaver's quarrel with the Republican organization the mayor and reform organizations had a canvass made of the voters of the city for the purpose of purging the voting lists of to President Roosevelt at once. He gives as his reason for resigning the prevalence of revolutions, riots and fever in Haiti. "I have tempted the fates long enough," he said. In about eight days Mr. Powell will return to his post at Port au Prince to await the appointment and arrival of his successor. Mr. Powell was appointed minister to Haiti about ten years ago by President Harrison.

Sensational Allegation.

Vincennes, Ind., Sept. 14.—Ex-Trustee Win S. Lane has filed a damage suit in the Knox circuit court for $10,000 against Dr. Royce Davis of Decker, charging him with alienating the affections of his wife and ruining his home. He alleges that Dr. Davis while visiting his home as a family physician won the affections of Mrs. Lane. Davis is a prominent doctor in the county and he has a wife and grown daughters.

FOUL PLAY FEARED

Elkhart Police Believe That Robert Nodhdurft Was Murdered.

HAVE MADE ARRESTS

Two Men Who Were on the Train on Which Nodhdurft Was Last Seen, Alive Are Held.

It Is the Theory of the Police That Victim Was the Subject of Persecution.

Elkhart, Ind., Sept. 14.—Elkhart and St. Joseph, Mich., police believe they have established beyond a doubt that Robert Nodhdurft, whose decomposed body was found in the hydraulic race here Aug. 24, was murdered, and have placed Bert Tidy and William Grin under arrest, charged with being responsible for Nodhdurft's death. He was a passenger on a Big Four excursion train on the night he met death. The train was returning from Marion. At Elkhart a hot-box was discovered and a stop was made on the trestle crossing the race and some time was spent in cooling the hot-box. Nodhdurft was seen to step onto the platform and later it was noticed that he had not returned. When the train was between Elkhart and Niles a search was made for Nodhdurft, but he could not be found.

Suspicion that Nodhdurft had fallen into the race at Elkhart was confirmed on the morning of Aug. 28 by the finding of the body floating on the surface. His relatives refused to believe his death was accidental and they began an investigation. From several passengers it was learned that Nodhdurft, whose reputation for sobriety, industry and amiability was excellent, had been made the victim of persecution by Tidy and several companions during the entire trip homeward from Marion. Tidy and his friends were intoxicated, according to the statements of numerous witnesses.

It is the theory of the police that when Nodhdurft stepped onto the rear platform the persecution by Tidy and his companions was renewed; that Nodhdurft resented their taunts, a fight ensued and he was knocked unconscious into the race. He was twenty-three years old.

Are You SATISFIED with Indiana Pride and Purity Flour? If so, do not accept a substitute for a few cents less, for it is not as good. We have spent thousands of dollars to make our Plant an up-to-date Mill, and we are safe in saying that we have the best equipped mill in the State today, and our sales are sufficient proof that we are making better Flour than our competitors, for we are operating our mill full time, while most of them are only running half time. The Proof of the Pudding is in the eating, get a Sack of INDIANA PRIDE or PURITY FLOUR and be convinced : : : : : :
